

UF Pathways to Online Teaching Excellence

UF + Quality Matters

Instructor Course Development

Complete the Great Online Course Workshop Series

Design and build a great online course with the help of an instructional designer

Teach the course and complete Part 1 of the Course Reviews for Excellence Workshop (CREW)

Complete a self-review in ProposalSpace and include student evaluations and course map

Reviewers Complete Course Review

If all essential standards are met:

Instructor receives notification and invitation to complete Part 2 of the Course Reviews for Excellence Workshop (CREW)

Receive course feedback

Peer faculty review course

If all essential standards are not met:

Instructor team has two weeks to make changes to course and provide additional details to reviewers

Instructor "Pays it Forward"

Reviewers check revisions

Become a trained course reviewer upon completion of CREW

Review two courses

Receive course badge for quality designation

Faculty teaching courses that receive an exemplary designation will be recognized at UF's Interface Conference teach.ufl.edu/course-quality